

May Day Raffia Crown Decorating Tips

I start by trimming my flowers so that they are short but still long enough to weave through the braid without falling out. This should be around 3-4 inches

Then I work my way around the crown weaving the flowers through. It can be nice to have some larger flowers in the front, or you can do smaller or larger flowers all the way around. Pick what works best for you!

Have Fun & Happy May Day!

